

Ed Chaffin

Entrepreneur | Author | Speaker

Ed Chaffin, PCC, CEO and Founder of The UnCommon Leadership® Institute, is passionate about changing the world one life at a time by helping leaders and their teams achieve their potential.

He is a seasoned executive, speaker, author, and entrepreneur and has helped build 3 companies as an executive. He has coached and worked with over 300 leaders and teams from around the world through his coaching, workshops, speeches, and team programs whereby he shares his knowledge and expertise on leadership.

Suggested Questions

- What was the catalyst for you to write a book and what are the book's main theme(s)?
- In your coaching and consulting career, what's the biggest challenge you've faced?
- What do clients get when they hire you as their coach and/or consultant?

Suggested Topics

- Leadership is personal and personalized.
- Why are beliefs so important in becoming a great leader?
- What do leaders need to know in the New Reality of our workplace?
- What message do you have for others who are still struggling to move forward?
- You devote a lot of real estate in your book to the Birkman Method® Assessment. Why?

CONNECT

edchaffin

edthemagician

www.edchaffin.com | ed@edchaffin.com | 404.790.9583